ILLINOIS ASSOCIATION FFA

CLAY ZWILLING of the Sherrard FFA Chapter is the 2008-2009 Illinois State FFA President. He is the son of Al and Becky Zwilling of Sherrard and his advisor is Troy Coziahr.

His SAE's include his state winning Beef Production Entrepreneurship, Swine Production, Diversified Livestock Production, and Agricultural Communications Entrepreneurship. Clay has served as Chapter President, Vice- President and Secretary.

He has also served as the Section 4 Vice President and the Section 3 President. Clay's favorite CDE's are Livestock and Public Speaking. After Clay's term, he will be attending Lake Land College and participating on their Livestock Judging team. After Lake Land he plans to attend a university to major in Agriculture Education.

AUSTIN ASHBY, from the West Carroll FFA chapter, is the 2008-2009 Illinois State FFA Vice President. He is the son of Jim and Lisa Ashby, and has one older sister, Sara. His FFA advisors are Mr. Dan Hartman and Mr. Don Mathey. Austin's supervised agricultural experiences include: beef production placement, crop production placement, hay forage placement, and turfgrass management.

Throughout his FFA career Austin has earned several awards and achievements and his favorite career development events include: parliamentary procedure, where he was the 1st place floor member at the state contest his senior year, land use contest, and livestock judging. Austin plans to attend Blackhawk community college for two years and then transferring to the University of Illinois majoring in agricultural business.

BEN ARTEMAN, from the Blue Ridge FFA Chapter, is the 2008-2009 Illinois State FFA Reporter. He is the son of Brian and Angie Arteman of Bellflower, Illinois, and has a sister, Lauren and brother, Lane.

Ben's advisor is Mr. Adam Swigart. His Supervised Agricultural Experience Programs are in the area of Diversified Crop Production, where he farms corn and soybeans. Before serving as State Reporter, Ben served as Section 16 President and Treasurer, as well as Blue Ridge FFA Chapter President and Treasurer. His favorite career development event is Livestock Judging. Ben will be attending Southern Illinois University Carbondale in the fall, majoring in Animal Sciences, specializing in pre-veterinary medicine.

ANDREW HEAVENER is serving as the State Secretary for the Illinois Association FFA. Andrew is from the Valmeyer

FFA Chapter and his advisor is Mr. Howard Heavner. He is the son of Ellen & Howard Heavner along with his three brothers and one sister. His SAE's included Turf Grass Management, Aquaculture, & Agriculture Services. Andrew's favorite CDE in the FFA would be Parliamentary Procedure where his chapter placed first overall in the state his senior year. He also attended WLC where he had a blast with fellow FFA members from across the state. Andrew has already completed a year at South Western Illinois College and when finished with his term plans on going back to complete his Associates in Science and then transfer to University of Florida majoring in Ag Education or Ag Business.

ANNIE LARSON, from the Indian Creek FFA chapter, is the 2008-2009 Illinois State FFA Treasurer. She is the daughter of Gene and Mary Larson of Shabbona and her advisor is

Miss Toni Saso. She has one older brother, Dan. Her supervised agricultural experiences include Sheep Production and Diversified Crop Production. Annie has served as Section 6 President, Section 7 Secretary, Chapter Vice President, and Chapter Reporter. Annie's favorite career development event is Public Speaking. After Annie is retired from the emblem of Washington, she will attend the University of Wisconsin Platteville majoring in Agriculture Communications.
